PROVINCIAL COUNCIL OVERVIEW

6. The SIA Provincial Council is responsible for the overall governance, and strategic and professional direction of the Institute, as stipulated by The Agrologists Act and the Administrative and Regulatory Bylaws. It establishes priorities, has oversight of SIA's activities and oversees budgets. It is focused on strategic issues and provides guidance to the President, President-Elect and Executive Director/Registrar.

RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Work in conjunction with other councillors to provide leadership and direction to the Institute.
2. Represent their fellow Technical Agrologists (TechAg) and Articling Technical Agrologists (ATechAg) ensuring major council issues are communicated to TechAg and ATechAg members and major TechAg and ATechAg issues are communicated to council.
3. Attend Provincial Council meetings and other council committee meetings as required. This typically includes four to six in-person meetings per year. Business may also be conducted by email and virtual conference (phone and video conferencing).
4. Act in concert with others on council and support council in speaking with “one voice”. It is each councillors’ responsibility to fully engage in discussion and debate at the council table. However, it is also their responsibility to hold details of the debate in confidence and to accept and report on the final decisions of council to the membership, regardless of whether their personal opinion and/or position may differ from the majority (refer to Confidentiality Agreement, #2.3.4).
5. Ensure any public comments related to SIA or its operations are made by the Institute’s appointed spokespeople, the President of Council or the Executive Director/Registrar, as per policy # 3.7, Spokesperson & Media requests.

TRAVEL & EXPENSES

6. Commit to volunteer approximately 8 - 10 days a year for travel and meetings. As this role requires a certain time commitment, the TechAg representative must have strong employer and family support.
7. Elected members of the council are entitled to reimbursement for expenses based on provincial government rates. (The Agrologists Act, S. 8 (4)); (Administrative Bylaw #29).
